RENDERING TECHNICIAN INTERNSHIP

Rendering Interns will be responsible for graphic design, photo-realistic and conceptual rendering of various materials within set deadlines. Intern will work independently and collaborate with others to complete tasks.

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES MAY INCLUDE

- Create renderings of streetscapes and public spaces showing appearance, use and function post project, using photos and floor plans of the spaces pre project.
- Create renderings of building interiors and exteriors, showing appearance, use and function post rehabilitation, using photos and floor plans of the building pre rehabilitation.
- Create graphic themes for specific events that use elements of existing branding of both Heritage Ohio and their partners.
- Create layouts consistent with the branding of Heritage Ohio for brochures, postcards, invitations, posters and other materials as needed.
- Work closely with the staff to assist in producing materials of professional quality within an established timeframe.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- Pursuing a degree in Graphic Design, Marketing, Architecture, or a related area with emphasis on graphic creation.
- Excellent focus and a good sense of priorities.
- Attention to detail
- Ability to work independently 5-20 hours a week, and conduct themselves in a professional manner.
- Internet access and mobile phone.
- Working knowledge of Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, and Adobe InDesign.
- Applicants must provide samples of work.
- Reliable mode of transportation is recommended.

BENEFITS

- Professional work experience and work that will compliment and build upon professional portfolio.
- Networking opportunities.
- Exposure.
- If applicant has Federal Work Study, they can be paid for up to 20 hours per week.
- Flexibility in scheduling, hours worked, and opportunities to work from anywhere.